Looking for an opportunity to get practice before sitting for the ACT in the coming months? Looking for a baseline score? Wanting feedback showing your areas to focus on before taking an official test.

Here is your opportunity! Class 101 Douglas County, CO is offering you the opportunity to take a full-length ACT practice test in a simulated testing environment.

Test scores and trend analyses are available for free by signing up for a 1-hour family meeting. Parents can select a time that works best for the whole family during the 30-minute information session at 9:30am the day of the test.
